COUNCILLOR REPORT

Councillor activities and updates for January 2024.

- Attached is my January write-up, “Notes from Council,” for the Champion Chronicle and my website.
- Attended board meeting of Twin Valley Regional Water Commission on January 9th.
 - Organizing members to think seriously about water conservation efforts.
- Attended the ORRSC Executive Committee meeting on January 11th.
- Attended the Regular Meeting of Council on January 17th.
- Attended webinar on LGFF funding formula for AB Munis on January 18th.
 - New grant program will require municipalities to spend 20% of the infrastructure dollars, based on a three-year average, from a source other than LGFF or the Canada Community Building Fund. However, allocations will be predictable over two years, and will be based on other metrics to establish need.
- Attended Foothills Little Bow Meeting in Lethbridge on January 19th.
 - Excellent presentations from the NRCB, the head of the BRID, and on the importance of water conservation.
- Attended SAEWA board meeting on January 26th:
 - Setting up meeting for end of February to figure out what direction things are going this year.
- Constituent Matters:
 - Receiving a few calls on the Tarping Bylaw.
